DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the arguments made in the Appeal Brief filed on 9/20/2007, claims 1-6 and 8-33 are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims are allowed in view of the prior amendments and for reasons argued by applicant filed 9/20/2007. In particular, prior art of record fails to disclose a session based, selective encryption VOD system, which determiners the decryption capabilities of a subscriber terminal requesting video on demand, performs encryption on a video content in accordance with the decryption capabilities of subscriber terminal requesting the video content in the session, wherein the encryption is performed only on a selected portion of the video content, and the non selected portion by passes the encryption module, and therefore remains unencrypted. No prior art performs On-demand (not pre-encrypted), session based delivery of the video content, wherein the encryption is only performed on a portion of the video content, and wherein only the requesting terminal has decryption capability of the encrypted content. The invention is useful because it allows secure delivery of the video material to the intended recipient only, while cutting the computational cost of encryption and decryption.

Dependent claims depend upon the independent claims, which include the above-mentioned features.

None of the prior art of record, either taken by itself or in any combination, would have anticipated or made obvious the invention of the present application at or before the time it was filed.

Claims 1-6, 8-33 are also reconsidered in view of the prior art identified in IDS submitted on 6/29/2007 and 9/10/2007, and remain allowable.

Conclusion

4. Any comments considered necessary by the applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submission should be clearly labeled "comments on statement of reasons for allowance."
